PREFACE

The higher education in India is becoming an international service as observed during the last three decades. There is growing concern all over the world about quality, standards and recognition of the higher education institutions. There is a need to ascertain and assure quality in the teaching-learning, research and extension, organization and management of Universities and other institutions of higher level of learning. The role of universities is not only providing and promoting access to higher education, but also offering quality education with excellent infrastructure, useful learning resources and student-centric support services. Quality and excellence are the new buzzwords and mantra of higher education institutions today. The challenge before higher education is offering globally attractive programmes and creating world-class environment of education.

The University of Mysore is one of the top twenty Universities in India considered for its outstanding contributions in the field of higher education, research and extension. Established in 1916 by the Maharaja of Mysore, the University has shown several milestones and achieved hallmarks in the higher education system in the country.

The University has been adopting several quality checks through measurable parameters for providing good education for intellectual development. This is done through consistent efforts made by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of the University with its continuous involvement in the improvement of the system. The annual growth factors in terms of curriculum design, teaching, learning, research, consultancy, extension, student support services, infrastructure, learning resources, organization and management are analysed by the IQAC every year. The achievements of the faculty, students and collaborators of the University are evaluated through SWOT analysis and by subjecting the University's activities through an external Academic and Administrative Audit Committee (AAAC), in order to ensure unbiased assessment of the performance.

It is under this context, the report of IQAC is consolidated and presented for year from 2010-11. I take the privilege of presenting this report for further processing by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), Bangalore. The efforts made by the IQAC is commendable for the academic progression of the University. With all its credits and contributions, the University is marching ahead in providing quality education not only to the students of India, but also to students of fifty countries in the world as students of these countries are studying in PG Departments and Constituents and Affiliated Colleges of the University of Mysore. I congratulate the entire team of IQAC and the advisory committee for their commitment and continuous efforts to give quality input for improvement of higher education system.

UNIVERSITY OF MYSORE

(Estd 1916)

(State University)

INTERNAL QUALITY ASSURANCE CELL ANNUAL QUALITY ASSURANCE REPORT (2010 - 2011)

PART A

The Foundation

The University of Mysore came into existence on 27th July 1916 is one of the oldest Universities in India. It is the sixth University in the country and the very first in the erstwhile princely state of Mysore. Sri Krishnaraja Wodeyar-IV, the benevolent ruler of Mysore and Sir M. Visvesvaraya, Engineer-Statesman, the then Dewan of Mysore were the pioneers in establishing this University.

Development and Diversification

During 1918-19, the University had 743 students apart from 735 collegiate High School students. The jurisdiction of the University was co-terminus with the borders of the State until 1956, when the districts of Coorg and South Kanara joined the then Mysore State with the reorganisation of the states after independence. With the founding of the Bangalore University in the year 1964, the educational institutions in the districts of Bangalore got transferred to Bangalore University and later in 1976 all affiliated colleges in Kolar and Tumkur districts also merged with Bangalore University.

Later the University of Mysore established two Post Graduate centres, one at Mangalore and another at Shimoga. These two Post Graduate centres got transformed into independent universities viz. Mangalore University and Kuvempu University in 1980 and 1987 respectively. The educational institutions of Dakshina Kannada and Kodagu got transferred to Mangalore University and those institutions under the jurisdiction of Chitradurga and Chikmagalore districts got transferred to Kuvempu University after their establishment.

Presently, the jurisdiction of the University of Mysore is restricted to four districts, viz., Mysore, Mandya, Hassan and Chamarajanagar. All the colleges and other institutions of higher education coming under the geographical territory of these four districts are affiliated to the University of Mysore. Manasagangotri - a picturesque suburban part of the Mysore city, large in size, a mansion at the center, overlooking a fine Kukkarahalli lake - is the main campus where all PG departments are located. It is now a center of learning comprising academic, research, extension and cultural activities. The Administrative offices including the offices of the Vice-Chancellor, the Registrar, the Registrar (Evaluation) and the Finance Officer are located in the Crawford Hall. Apart from main campus at Manasagangotri unit open 3 PG centres to cater to the rural youth. These includes Sir M. Vishweshwaraya, PG Centre, Mandya PG Centre, Hassan and satellite centre Chamarajanagar. The University has 58 Post-graduate departments offering 75 PG Courses.

In addition, the University has four Constituent Colleges, 190 Affiliated Colleges, 24 PG Centers in Colleges and 37 Recognized Research Centres. It also has University School of Design and International School of Information Management. Further, the University has many important centres of learning, training and research. These include: Educational Multimedia Research Centre (EMRC), Oriental Research Institute (ORI), UGC-Academic Staff College (ASC), Centre for Women Studies, Centre for Canadian Studies, Dr. Ambedkar Research and Extension Centre, Babu Jagajivan Ram Centre for Studies Research and Extension, NSS Training Centre, University-Industry Interaction Cell, Centre for Proficiency Development and Placement Services, Gandhian Studies, National Centre for History of Science. To promote and nurture academic and research activities, the University has many supportive units and facilities, such as - the University Science Instrumentation Centre, Central Library, Prasaranga – the publication division, Printing Press, College Development Council, University Employment Information and Guidance Bureau, International Centre, Office of the Director of Students Welfare, Special Cell for the development of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes, Statistical Cell, Cricket Stadium, Swimming Pool, Multipurpose Gymnasium, Oval Ground - Athletic track, sports fields, two Health Centers and 17 hostels for men, women students and working women.

The University is adorned with monumental, palatial heritage buildings such as the Jayalaxmi Vilas Mansion, Leela Vihar Mansion, Oriental Research Institute, Crawford Hall, Maharaja's College, Union building, Yuvaraja's College and Maharaja's College Hostel reflecting the art, tradition and culture of the region.

Ever since its inception, the University has strived for excellence and innovative programmes that are useful to the society. These include: extension lectures in rural sector in the regional language by distinguished scholars, demonstrations, exhibitions, 'Operation Bharani' - rural reconstruction involving students and teachers, popularizing literature through important publications, such as - Kannada Vishwakosha, Epigraphia Carnatica, History of Karnataka, Kannada-English Dictionary and so on. These programmes have attracted several philanthropists, institutions and Government agencies to donate and to support the University in its developmental and welfare schemes through institution of endowments, scholarships, fellowships, medals, cash prizes, and Chairs to promote, nurture and attain the academic excellence. Hence today, the University has 13 Chairs, 290 Gold medals, 218 Cash prizes and numerous scholarships and fellowships.

Another distinguishing feature of the University is the recording of its accomplishments since its inception in the form of an official publication titled "Mysore University Gazette." This gazette apart from indexing the important achievements (chronicles) and the development of the University, contain provisions of the Rules, Regulations, Ordinances and such other orders issued from time to time. The University has entered into MOU (Memoranda of Understanding) with many institutions and organizations in India and abroad.

The University has celebrated its Silver Jubilee in 1941, Golden Jubilee in 1966-67, Diamond Jubilee in 1976 and Platinum Jubilee in 1991-93. To mark these celebrations several special programmes were organized. These include: national and international level conferences, seminars, workshops, exhibitions, demonstrations. Golden Jubilee fund and Platinum Jubilee fund were also instituted. Further, many new and innovative teaching and research programmes were introduced as part of the celebrations.

The University of Mysore has many unique and notable features. To name a few: Oriental Research Institute containing nearly 70000 manuscripts, Institute of Development Studies offering inter-disciplinary courses, UGC's National Centre for History of Science, Linkages with many reputed institutions in India and abroad, a library with a huge collection of more than 6 lakh books, an ISO-9001-2000 Certified centre for Career Oriented Programmes in IT (CIST) and the University School of Design. The University believes in quick declaration of results, transparent systems of admission and management, rewarding exemplary faculty, felicitating retired staff and instituting medals and prizes for meritorious students. The University has campus-wide networking, single-window procedure for overseas students' admission, UGC's Infonet service with remote access facility. Many departments have UGC-SAP/DRS status, DST-FIST supported centres, Ford Foundation's Digital Library project, DANIDA assisted R&D projects, DST assisted Crystal research project, Molecular Genetics projects, projects funded by numerous National and International Funding agencies, UGC sponsored Centre for Remedial coaching, facilities for co-curricular and extra-curricular activities, auditoria and halls for meetings, and support services. The University also brings out a quarterly newsletter.

After its fruitful and meaningful existence for over 95 years, the University of Mysore is proud of having its thousands of alumni spread all over the globe, as teachers, scientists, lawyers, engineers, doctors, administrators, social workers, statesmen, and so on, serving the mankind and contributing their might to the enrichment of the culture and progress of the country.

Functions and plans of IQAC

University of Mysore has established the IQAC in 2001, immediately after first NAAC assessment and accreditation. It was done based on the guidelines of the UGC and the NAAC to monitor, improve and ensure quality of the entire academic and administrative programmes of the University. The IQAC has evolved appropriate mechanism and procedure to ensure efficient, effective and progressive performance of academic and administrative tasks; ensuring relevance and quality of the academic programmes; maximizing teaching, learning, research, extension and consultancy opportunities; credibility of evaluation procedures, adequacy and maintenance of support structure and services.

The University has adopted the following processes for internal quality checks:

- Evaluation of teachers by students at the end of every semester.
- Self appraisal reports submitted by teachers every year.
- Organisation of workshops at regular intervals on Quality Assurance and Management to sensitize the faculty.
- Students' feedback on various academic programmes to understand their impact and usefulness.

The following advisory committee as per the guidelines of the NAAC was constituted for this purpose:

The IQAC met periodically and reviewed the progress of the University and its quality enhancement based on the criteria fixed by the NAAC for self evaluation and suggested actions for further strengthening and sustaining the quality. The quality of the academic programmes is ensured through constant monitoring and supervision by appropriate committees as detailed below:

- Every department has a Programme Committee and a Course Co-ordinator, which meets at least three times in a semester to review the P.G. programmes offered.
- Ph.D. programmes are monitored by Doctoral Committees. For every Ph.D. Scholar, a separate Doctoral Committee is constituted. The Doctoral Committee meets once in every six months and monitors the progress of the scholar.
- The curriculum is revised once in two years by the Board of Studies constituted as per provisions under the University Statutes.
- The University ensures the quality of administration by establishing a well defined hierarchical administrative structure for a smooth flow of direction and execution of various administrative decisions with necessary internal monitoring and checks.

Formats with Quality Parameters

The University, through a well structured format, collects the necessary primary data and information from all the Departments and other Sections of the University on Programmes Offered, Students Enrolment, Faculty Strength, Infrastructure and other Programmes. The system of evaluation and internal assessment and the results of students, placement and further progression of students in higher education are assessed by using these details.

Teachers' Self-Appraisal Form

A Self-Appraisal Form which was prepared in 1998 was modified in subsequent years - 2001, 2006 and 2009 - incorporating new UGC norms and NAAC Criteria and distributed to all faculty members in order to collect information from each teacher regarding their qualification, experience, research publications, research projects, and funds mobilized by the teacher, conferences attended and papers presented, foreign academic visits, fellowships obtained, countries visited, conferences organized, membership of academic societies, etc. This data provided by teachers formed another major component to evaluate the performances of teachers and their capability matrix under the context of their teaching, learning, research and development, and extension activities.

Peer Assessment of Faculty

Teachers' performance and their contribution to the development of respective departments in particular and University in general, their association with various activities of the University etc. were got assessed by the peer team informally.

Students Critical Evaluation of Teachers

Students' feedback is an essential component of the assessment of academic institutions. It provides an opportunity to elicit the view of the students regarding modern tools and techniques, facilities available in departments and teaching & learning environment. Questions regarding teachers' regularity in conducting classes, providing up-to-date information on the subject, their orientation to the assigned part of the curriculum, style and efficiency of teaching, clarity in imparting information, availability of the teacher before and after the class hours for consultation, general ability of the teachers, their capabilities in motivating students for progression, etc are included in such exercises. Students' feedback is also obtained on campus facilities such as cleanliness and ambiance in campus, security in the campus, library facility, research facility, general student amenities such as canteen facility, sports facility, transport facility, medical facility, overall impression etc. Their opinion about the role of administrators and system of administration, delays and denials of justice etc is also sought. Students are asked to give their feedback in an abstract manner also. This is a good initiative for introspection from its stakeholders and beneficiaries. The AAAC evaluate these forms and suggests improvement possibilities.

Questionnaire on administration

A questionnaire is also prepared for obtaining the role played by various administrative sections including the officers of Registrar, Registrar (Evaluation), Finance Officer and the other supporting units such as SC/ST Cell, University Library, Student Welfare Office, University Health Centre, Garden Department, National Service Scheme and Estate Office while delivering services to students, staff and the other stakeholders and also to elicit the information regarding the efficiency of the functioning of these offices. This has helped in proper planning, budget allocation and carrying out reforms.

Parents feedback on campus facilities

The parents' feedback on their wards is normally collected on day-to-day basis by concerned teachers offering the course(s). This feedback includes their opinion about campus facilities, discipline on the campus, facilities provided by the university, general reputation, campus atmosphere, placement record, location of university, overall rating, etc.

PART-B

1. Activities reflecting the goals and objectives of the Institution:

The Vision and Mission statements of the University as incorporated by the Founding Fathers are:

- To impart education – literary, artistic and scientific, agricultural, commercial and professional,
- For furthering original research,
- For promoting the state of literature, art, philosophy, history, medicine, science and other branches of useful knowledge; and
- For imparting physical and moral training.

The University has been promoting the growth of human resources since its inception with pride, and has been striving to achieve excellence in all avenues. Many faculty members have received both national and international recognition in the form of awards, fellowships and membership of learned societies. To mention a few: Prof. S. Chandrashekar – Fellow of the Royal Society, Prof. K. V. Puttappa – Gnanapeetha Award and Padma Bhushan, Prof. U. R. Anantha Murthy – Padma Bhushan and Gnanapeeth Award, and Prof. C. D. Narasimhaiah – Padma Bhushan. It is worth mentioning here that Dr. S. Radhakrishnan who served this University as distinguished Professor of Philosophy rose to the status the President of India.

Motto of the University

The significance of the mission is reflected in the functioning of the University as enshrined in its EMBLEM. The university emblem consists of “Gandabherunda” a double headed mythological bird flanked by two sharabhas which are animals. This symbol of bird and animals represents watchfulness, virtue, unity, courage, liberality and truth. The motto of the university, “Na Hi Jnanena Sadrisham” which means “There is nothing comparable to knowledge” is depicted in the emblem. The emblem also contains “Satyamevadharmayaham” which means “I always uphold the truth”.

Functions of the University

The functions and responsibilities are defined clearly in the Karnataka State Universities Act 2000. They cover academic courses to be imparted, research activities to be carried out, institution of teaching positions, visiting professors, establishment of chairs and special arrangement for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and other weaker sections of the society. The functions also include extra-mural teaching, physical and military teaching, encouraging students science activities, promotion of sports, athletic clubs and extra-curricular activities. The university has an affiliation system whereby it can affiliate colleges within its administrative jurisdiction - presently covering four districts viz. Mysore, Mandya, Chamarajanagar and Hassan. The university also has provisions to recognize private, Central Government and State Government Institutes for research purposes even outside the university jurisdiction.

The major considerations of the University are to promote:

- Intellectualism
- Access to the disadvantaged
- Equity to the local people
- Self-development
- Community and national development
- Ecology and environment
- Value orientation
- Employment
- Introduction of recent technology like Information Technology
- Introduction of programs that meet other global demands in higher education
- Excellence in higher education, empowerment through knowledge
- Inclusive growth for socio-economic change and sustainable development

The materialization of the goals into programmes are seen in the establishment of post-graduate main campus at Manasagangothri, four Constituent Colleges for promotion of studies in arts, commerce, management, humanities, fine arts and science. The university also has established three Post-Graduate centers in all the other three districts, viz., Mandya, Hassan and Chamarajanagar offering post-graduate courses to reach higher education to the rural youth. The university also has several research and training centers including Oriental Research Institute and Folklore and Archaeological Museum.

The achievement of the goals and objectives of the university are being realized, since the action plan and the programmes are given more importance. It is to integrate the larger interest of the individuals, institutions, nation in higher education globally. The following are the recent initiatives attempted in line with the Mission of the University.

Book Exhibitions

Book Exhibition on “ Dr. B.R. Ambedkar” birth day Celebration(15-4-10 to 20-04-10), “Independence day” Celebration (15.08.2010 to 24.08.2010), Dr. S.R.Ranganathan Birth day Celebration (12.08.2010 to 17.08.2010), “Gandhi Jayanthi” (02.10.2010 to 11.10.2010), “Kannada Rajyotsava” (01.11.2010 to 10.11.2010), “National Book Week” (14.11.2010 to 23.11.2010), “Rashtrakavi Kuvempu Jayanthi” (29.12.2010 to 04.01.2011), were organized.

Book Exhibition on “Nethaji’s Birthday” was Organised on 23-01-2011, Sri. H.S.Doreswamy, Freedom Fighter, opening the Exhibition and delivered the lecture on Nethaji’s life and struggle.

Apart from the traditional library services, value added services such as referral service, e-alerts, Institutional Repository of research output, citation analysis, article delivery service, access to digital sources through library portal, OPAC, online tutorials, orientation programmes, workshops, exhibitions, conferences, and student support “Earn while you learn” scheme are provided.

Downloads of online resources through library portal can be monitored by the usage details from respective publishers. Library is partly automated and operated using Kohat, library management software. 164 computers are provided for information retrieval via internet, besides the campus wide network. Reprographic facility is outsourced and available within the library premises.

Attention is paid to build up the e-resource collection, besides the print to keep pace with current literature to enhance learning and research.

Purchase of books are by recommendations of the respective Departmental Committees (catalogues and e-mails are periodically sent for their selection of current titles). Prior to renewal of journals every year, Departments are requested for their consent and also recommendations for new titles. Brainstorming sessions are also held to consider subscription of new databases journals. The titles thus recommended are placed finally before the Library Committee for negotiation of subscription costs and approval to proceed for subscription. Both print archives as well as extensive e archive collection is also used. For example, JSTOR is most popularly used for retrieving archival literature with 1,12,453 downloads in 2009.

Campus wide network enables the students and faculty to have a ubiquitous environment with access to online library services available 24x7 at desktops/laptops. Frequency or usage statistics gradually increased in downloads every year.

Library functions throughout the year except for seven holidays. Working hours have been extended from 8.30 a.m. – 8.30 p.m. (12 hours) and till 10.00 p.m. (14 hours) during examination period. It is proposed to have 24 hours reading facility in the additional new library building under construction.

Library advisory Committee consists of the Registrar, Finance Officer, Deans of Faculties and Librarian. Committee meets periodically to deliberate, take decisions and make recommendations on Library development issues. This year highlight was that, the Committee had done negotiation of e-resources with the respective publishers through video conferencing in the Library. We are the first university in the country who has done this exercise, thereby saving lot of time and money.

Motivation to students and teachers

The jackets of the new arrival of books are scanned and displayed to roll in a Plasma TV at the entrance of the library, which catches the eye of the entrant (first of its kind in any university library). Secondly, the library software Libsys has a provision to check the latest arrivals for the last one month. Besides e-circulars/e-alerts are posted and flash news on the library portal indicate the latest additions of e-resources to the library. Periodic Orientation and Training programmes for honing skills in usage of database, Quizzes, Posters and promo material create awareness of latest additions.

Special Facilities offered to the Visually Challenged Persons

Computers and scanner with the essential software to convert print into audio files are provided. The visually challenged scan the essential print books and stores it as audio books for use. They are also savvy in using our library portal to access all the e-resources of our digital library, use internet to access their e-mails or prepare power point presentations.

23. Courses in which student assessment of teachers is introduced and the action-taken on student feedback

Student assessment of teachers has been followed in all courses. The feedbacks are collected in a structured format periodically. Based on the feedback good performers are appreciated and other staff members are motivated to improve their performance.

Students Critical Evaluation of Teachers

Students' feedback is an essential component of any assessment. It provides an opportunity to elicit the view of the students regarding the general facilities available in the Department, their opinion about the teaching and research commitment and capability of the faculty, role of administrators and system of administration, delays and denials of justice, and for providing better amenities and care on campus with modern tools and techniques. Questions regarding teacher's regularity in conducting classes, providing up-to-date information on the subject, their orientation to the assigned part of the curriculum, style and efficiency of teaching, clarity in imparting information, availability of the teacher before and after the class hours for consultation, general ability of the teachers, their capabilities in motivating students for progression, etc are normally included in such exercises. Students are also asked to give their feedback in an abstract manner. A copy of the questionnaire obtaining feedback from students is provided Annexure – A & B.

As per the directions of NAAC, student assessment of teachers was introduced and based on the overall observations made, the teachers are advised to act effectively. Assessment of teachers by the students was conducted every year for all the courses and reviewed by the and advisory committee members consisting of former Vice Chancellors and high level education administrators and accordingly the teachers are appraised and motivated to improve the teaching and research programs.

Centre for Proficiency Development and Placement Service

Today, against the backdrop of globalization, candidates with proficiency for employability have manifold opportunities for placements. Proficiency is the key to employability, individual excellence and social involvement. To gain an overall proficiency, students need to be equipped with a variety of skills such as communication skills, language competency, analytical skills, application skills, organizational skills, inter-personal skills, innovative skills, entrepreneurial skills, etc. Keeping in view the need for systematizing the activities of skill development, proficiency enhancement, and personality development, and establishing liaisons for placements, the University of Mysore has established the Centre for Proficiency Development and Placement Service (CPDPS). The Centre keeps liaison with different Institutions, Industries, Government Departments and such other organizations, and collects information about job opportunities and creates and maintains up-to-date database in this respect. It facilitates unemployed graduates and postgraduates so that they could be placed in different sectors through on-campus and off-campus interviews, and other modes of selection processes.

K-SET Centre

The University Grants Commission (U.G.C.), New Delhi, has prescribed that a person aspiring to become a Lecturer (Assistant Professor) in Universities / Colleges has to qualify in NET / SET (State Eligibility Test), earlier known as SLET.

The U.G.C. and Government of Karnataka have identified University of Mysore as a Nodal Agency to conduct Karnataka State Eligibility Test (K-SET) for Lecturership and this K-SET Centre is located in Pareeksha Bhavan, behind Crawford Hall, University of Mysore, Mysore.

During the year 2011, the K-SET Centre is conducting Examination in 26 different subjects in line with NET examinations being conducted by the UGC. Details regarding eligibility criteria and mode of conducting the SET examination are available on the K-SET Centre website www.kset.uni-mysore.ac.in.

jurisdiction of the University of Mysore. The University recognises that sexual harassment is a serious offence and takes appropriate steps to prevent and deal with sexual harassment to see that there is no hostile environment for women at work / study place. The students, teaching and non-teaching staff members and other category women employees can complain to their immediate Heads / to the Registrar, the Vice-Chancellor / the Committee whenever they face any kind of sexual harassment [as defined by the Supreme Court guidelines] in their work place or college and exercise their right to study/ work / live with dignity.

School

Manasagangothri school established in the campus, offers classes I to X to cater to educational needs of the children of the University staff, faculty and people in the neighbourhood.

Daycare Centre and Kindergarten

During the recent induction of new faculties, and a phenomenal increase in strength of Research Scholars, a large number of young mothers have joined the University.

The need for establishing a Day Care Centre was felt and the university established the same in a spacious building with State of the Art facilities, air conditioned play rooms, rest rooms and dining rooms. Trained staff and ayahs were appointed from the University funds and grants by the UGC.

This has helped the young mothers to leave their children in safe hands during their working hours.

The day care centre provides free service to the children of university employees.

27. Technology up gradation

The University believes in providing an ambience with the state-of-the-art facilities.

Alumni Associations are functioning in all teaching departments of the University. They are doing yeomen services in their area of operation. Their activities include providing academic support, conducting symposia and workshop, providing financial aid to needy students as scholarships and endowments, assisting the activities of Placement Cell etc.

Department-wise alumni meetings were conducted.

The Alumni of Computer Science Department have donated books to the Library and Information Centre.

Alumini association provides scholarships to the economically weaker and meritorious students and instituted Medals and Trophies to the meritorious students.

The BoS of every course includes an alumnus as its member, who contributes in restructuring and updating of the curriculum.

Guest lectures are delivered by alumni members on topics in their field of specialization and relating to the overall development of the students.

Alumni members residing in various parts of India and abroad share their experiences with the staff and present students whenever they visit the institution.

They also help the students in getting placements by providing information about the employment prospects to the students, faculty and HoDs. Though the activities of the Alumni Association was insignificant during the entire period, some alumni in their individual capacity were involved in academic support to the University by associating themselves in delivering talks, seminar lecturers and also by attending different Programmes held in the University. But their moral supports to the University were significant.

31. Support from the Parent – Teacher Association and its Activities

University of Mysore , since its inception is maintaining centrality in character in admitting students and appointing teaching and non-teaching functionaries from all parts of India and even abroad for some prestigious and innovative courses by following the required percentage of reservation. Hence, the formal association of Parents and Teachers is not practically feasible. However, the individual department / centre is inviting the available parents in around the University and convening an informal parent teachers meeting in the department / centre to make valuable suggestions and contributions which would improve the teaching, learning, research, consultancy and exceptional activities of the University. In the case of students who are absent for more than week, department chairperson sends the wards parents a post -card (since most students are from rural region) informing them about the student, his marks and other academic records. The parents do come and have meeting with the course teachers on day-to-day basis inquiring about their wards and normally this procedures do lead to corrective measures for the student to change their attitudes towards higher learning.

PART-C

Administrative Audit from: 2010-11

The Academic and Administrative Audit Committee members visited the following sections and held discussions with the head and staff of each section separately.

- 1) Administration
- 2) Finance
- 3) Examination
- 4) College Development Council
- 5) All Support Services

Administration - Observations

- 1) The University administration is sending circulars through e-mode which is highly appreciated.
- 2) Training of non-teaching staff is limited to university staff only.
- 3) Decentralization of administrative functions is – fairly good.
- 4) Providing information under RTI has been done on time and there is good amount of awareness.
- 5) Grievance Redressal has been addressing the grievances of the employees by meeting at regular intervals. (2-3 times a year).
- 6) Departmental Promotion Committee (DPC) meets once a year.
- 7) Review meetings within the Administration along with Finance and Engineering Sections are held twice a month which is noteworthy and should be continued.
- 8) Financial powers delegated to various officers including Deans have enhanced activities and provided more autonomy and responsibility.
- 9) The number of court cases are very less. This shows that the systems are in place and transparent. Still there is a room to show more improvements..

- 10) Putting the Roster points on the website is a welcoming trend.
- 11) Most of the staff are trained in Computer skills and are motivated to do their mundane job using computer and internet.
- 12) Increase of Internet Bandwidth to 32 Mbps has been done and the campus is going for a complete Wi-Fi environment.
- 13) Optimum utilization of existing space to house different cells of Administrative Sections, is a good initiative.

Finance - Observations

- 14) System of making advance payments to the Head of a Unit in order to meet the expenses for any major event is appreciable.
- 15) The decision of the University to delegate financial sanction/purchase powers to different officers and departmental Heads for speedy operation deserves appreciation.
- 16) The students' scholarship disbursement mechanism, quick clearance of bills and the decision to gradually dispense with the mechanism of submission of Demand Drafts to the University are some of the healthy practices initiated on governance adopted in the Finance Branch.
- 17) Computerization of Accounts and automated cheque generation is laudable.

Examinations - Observations

- 18) With 190 Affiliated Colleges and 24 PG Centers in colleges affiliated to the University, the Examination section has been effectively conducting examinations of PG and UG courses as also that of Professional courses.
- 19) Examinations of courses under outreach mode are held in 25 centers in different parts of the country and are being carried out through twinning program with 37 institutions.
- 20) The processing of result is being computerized. However complete automation of the Examination is still to be implemented, from on-line application.

- 21) The Examination section has a separate Finance unit which caters to the disbursement of payments to paper setters, evaluators and custodians in time.
- 22) The Malpractice Enquiry committee meetings are held regularly and penalty/otherwise decisions of the committee are communicated well in time to the students.
- 23) OMR sheets are being used in engineering examinations.
- 24) For Entrance and Distance Education examinations, the University Professors are deputed as observers.

The Heads of the departments made presentations giving details of action taken on the recommendations made by the AAA committee and on the developments of the Departments. The committee observed that all the Departments had complied with most of the recommendations of the committee. There is a visible change in the strength of the staff, progress in research and infrastructure facilities, observed over a period of time, in all sections of the University.

Future Plans

The phenomenal and all round development of the University of Mysore for this academic year is remarkable. The expansion in the academic programmes, development of adequate infrastructure and student amenities, welfare measures adopted for the employees and students, quality initiatives in the research activities, reforms in the governance, adoption of new academic regulations to sustain quality in research and the development of excellent ambience in the Campus are all due to the untiring efforts and leadership provided by the Vice-Chancellor. and ably supported by the University Administrators and faculty members. The University has projected a road map for the future developments in several sectors. University is planning to establish a Centre for Material Science Research with the assistance of UGC is an excellent initiative. The University's decision to reward the teachers for their outstanding contributions through cash prizes, is laudable.

The construction of a group of buildings to house different departments will be shortly completed and made ready for occupation. University has also initiated for modernization of sports and other facilities. University has a future plan to adopt a unique Community outreach/extension programme to train educated unemployed Women from remote areas, villages, backward areas and support them to start their own kindergarten schools. All four hundred teaching faculty members are provided with laptop computers. This is a history in the history of Indian higher education system. This is in addition to their table top PC's given to work in their staff rooms.

According to the overall objectives, the IQAC has monitored and improved the entire operations of the institution and assured every stakeholders connected with higher education, namely students, faculty members, staff, parents, funding agencies and society in general and the institutions accountability in particular, for its own quality and probity. To sustain the quality assurance, the Academic and Administrative Audit Committee may be reviewed with external experts to assess the academic and administrative system of the University with necessary suggestions to improve.
