Webinar

On 24-08-2020 Prof. Krishna Raj, Institute for Social and Economic Change, Bengaluru gave the first web series lecture on Economic development of SC/STs since Independence with special reference to Karnataka. He made the detail analysis of the various programmes and policies of the Union and State Governments. The data and the reports of the government were discussed threadbare. His presentation helped to gauge the progress of the marginalized communities of the society. He concluded with an observation of allocation of resource is not sufficient and government has to be liberal to achieve the sustainable development.

Our object in framing the Constitution is rally two-fold: (1) To lay down the form of political democracy, and (2) To lay down that our ideal is economic democracy and also to prescribe that every Government whatever is in power shall strive to bring about economic democracy. The directive principles have a great value, for they lay down that our ideal is economic democracy.
