Dear SHREYA PATHAK,

Congratulations on securing your admissions in Master's in Architectural Design and we welcome you to the CEPT Family.

For the new PG students an online orientation is scheduled to guide the students through the further course of action. You should be able to interact with the Faculty/Program chairs during the academic orientation. The detailed information about the platform and timings for the academic orientation for each program will be shared by the respective Faculty.

Please read the attached documents carefully to complete the orientation & registration process successfully. Kindly also go through the instructions for fee payment applicable to Monsoon 2021.

Warm regards,

Admissions Office
