Sub: Declaration of results for Under-Graduate and Post-Graduate programs through promotion-reg.

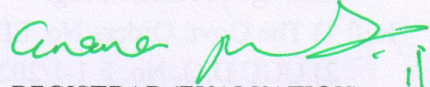

- Ref: 1) The Govt. Orders No. ED/197/UNE/2020, Bangalore, dated: 10-07-2020.
2) UGC D.O. No. F 1-1/2020 (Secy.), dated: 08-07-2020.
3) The Proceedings dated: 21-07-2020.
4) The Hon'ble Vice-chancellor's approval dated: 01-09-2020.

With reference to the above, the University of Mysore has adopted the following procedures and announced the results for Intermediate semesters of UG (II & IV sem.) & PG (II sem.) programs (courses) for the academic year 2020-21 through promotion.

1. The overall total of all courses of optional subjects from previous semester (I and III sem. for UG program (course) and I sem. of PG) program (course) is taken into consideration (a).
2. The total marks of all courses of optional subjects secured by the student is taken into consideration and converted into percentage ; further 50% of this secured marks in percentage is calculated (b).
3. The IA marks card scored for the present/next semester (II and IV sem. UG; II sem. of PG) is calculated and further converted to 50% (c).
4. The secured theory marks is (b) and converted IA marks (c) is added to obtain the total marks (d) secured by the student (100 marks).
5. Further, the IA marks is deducted from the total marks (d) enabling for display of the theory marks and IA marks separately in the score-card and declaration of the results.
6. The practical marks scored by the previous semester are carried forward to the next semester, which remains constant for all courses of all optionals.
7. This procedure is followed for only those candidates who have cleared and passed all the courses of the subjects opted in the previous semester (I and III sem. for UG and I sem. of PG) courses.

NOTE:

1. If any mistakes/discrepancies found after the announcement of the results through promotion the students are hereby informed to bring the same to the notice of the University authorities.
2. In case the candidate has failed in any of the course(s) in the previous intermediate/odd semester, his/her even semester (both UG and PG) the results will be processed after they clear/pass the respective course(s).
3. If the student is not satisfied with the results through promotion, such students can appear for upcoming examination when the University issues notification by dropping all the courses of the results (II and IV sem. for UG and II sem. of PG).
