Subject: Nomination for the Second Ganit Ratna Award (2023) ...

Dear Sir,

I am happy to inform you that the First Ganit Ratna Award (2022) was conferred on Professor Mahesh Ramesh Kakde of Indian Institute of Science, Bengaluru for his outstanding original and breakthrough researches. The evaluation committee of 10 eminent mathematicians had one or more of the following honours to their credit: i) Abel Awardee ii) Clay Awardees iii) Fields Medalist iv) SASTRA-Ramanujan Awardee v) Shanti Swarup Bhatnagar Awardees vi) Fermat Prize winner vii) ILAS Hans Schneider Prize winner viii) Infosys prize winner ix) Coxeter James prize winner x) ICTP Ramanujan prize winner xi) French government's Ordre National du Mérite xii) Padmashri Awardee xiii) Padmabhushan Awardee etc.

Registration

AL-5

The Ganit Ratna Award (GRA) has been instituted and established by Professor Thakare Gaurav Sanstha (PTGS) (i.e., Professor Thakare Felicitation Institute) which is a registered trust (Reg. No. MAHA/421/2021 Pune) under the Maharashtra Public Trust Act 1960 as well as under Bombay Public Trust Act 1950 (Reg. No. F-58083) with headquarters at Pune, India. The Ganit Ratna Award will be given in the solemn memory of late Professor Ratan Prakash Agarwal (15 June 1925 - 9 Feb 2008) of Lucknow University who was a pioneering researcher in the field of classical mathematical analysis. The awardee shall be given Rs. 1,11,000/- (rupees one lakh eleven thousand only) as an award money with a plaque (memento) and a citation.

Permit me now to encroach upon your valuable time and to put a specific request to your honour to nominate a researcher from your University/Institute who has made pioneering, original and outstanding research contributions in mathematics for Second Ganit Ratna Award (2023).

The last date for nomination is 31st August 2022.

The award shall be given based on the recommendation of the Ganit Ratna Committee which consists of a minimum 10 mathematicians with at least four foreigners. The said award is to be given on a convenient date in February/ March 2023. You are requested to send an online nomination in the prescribed format on the email address ptgsGANITratna@gmail.com. Please find as attachments (i) Instructions for Suggesting Nominations for Ganit Ratna Award (with format) (ii) Statutes for Ganit Ratna Award.

Thanking you, Sir

Yours Sincerely
