WORK DONE REPORT

This is a brief report on some aspects of my interests and achievements. 26 years of academic experience has given me a greater exposure to Indian history, American history and History of Hyderabad Karnataka and has enabled me to obtain greater efficiency in undertaking teaching, research, supervision, research projects and publications. These years have enriched my experience through participation in national and international conferences, seminars, workshops and have prompted me to present and published 100 papers-seven of which at international conferences. When I applied for the prestigious Commonwealth Post-Doctoral Fellowship, I have been awarded Commonwealth Post-Doctoral Fellowship at Cambridge University UK, 2010-2011.

I am Dr. Y.H. Nayakwadi, a Professor in the Department of Studies in History, University of Mysore, have been working in the department since 1994. My qualifications are M. A., M. Phil., Ph.D., Post-Doctoral., Dip. in. Epi. I have 26 years of teaching experience and as many years of research experience and have specialized in Medieval and Modern Indian History and History of Hyderabad Karnataka. The hard work put in by me during the last 26 years has enabled me to present and Publish 3 international papers at the 16th, 18th and 20th European Conferences on Modern South Asian Studies held at Edinburgh University, UK, in September 2000, Lund University, Sweden, in July 2004, Manchester University, UK, in July 2008 respectively, and two International papers at Cambridge University in 2010 and 2011. Also I have present and publish two international papers held at the Directorate at Hospet, (Hampi) India, in March 2010 and University of Mysore, India, in February 2017.

I have presented 100 papers at state and national level conferences of which 50 are published in reputed journals. I have also published 10 books which have earned appreciation from scholars and academicians. I have completed two Major Research Projects in 2004 and 2014, on Hyderabad Karnataka region under the Nizams sponsored by UGC New Delhi. I have successfully guided 10 research scholars who have been awarded the degree of Ph.D. Also, I have provided successful guidance to 10 students who have awarded with M.Phil. Degrees. Besides 10 more research are working under my guidance.

My professional affiliations have enriched my historical knowledge in participating conferences as a member of various professional activities. I have worked in various boards of examiners and Boards of Studies in History and addressed the candidates taking civil service examinations such as K.A.S. and I.A.S., and addressed the participants taking courses such as Refresher Course and Orientation Course and gave special lectures in various Academic bodies. My future Plans are in relation to a major research projects dealing with ‘Socio-Economic Conditions in Hyderabad Karnataka under the Nizams (1724-1948)’, and ‘Hyderabad Karnataka under the Nizams(1724-1948)’. Besides, on the work done by me in the past 26 years and I hope to receive Smuts and Fulbright Fellowships to work in specialized fields.
